

Fig. 2.3 (a) A two-dimensional representation of an amorphous, covalently bonded structure, in which one type of atom (•) is trigonally coordinated and another (o) is two-fold coordinated. A real example might be B_2O_3 . (b) The corresponding crystalline modification of the amorphous structure shown in (a).

